

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

---

MICHAEL J. STRONG, Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 13-CV-00956

WHEATON FRANCISCAN HEALTHCARE, Defendant.

DECISION AND ORDER

Pro se plaintiff Michael Strong has filed this action against Wheaton Franciscan Healthcare. Plaintiff asserts that defendant discriminated against him on the basis of his criminal record and refused to provide him with medical services. Ordinarily, a plaintiff must pay a statutory filing fee of $350 to bring an action in federal court. 28 U.S.C. § 1914(a). Plaintiff, however, has requested leave to proceed in forma pauperis, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915.

Section 1915 is meant to ensure indigent litigants meaningful access to federal courts, Nietzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 324 (1989), and applies to both nonprisoner plaintiffs and to plaintiffs who are incarcerated, Floyd v. United States Postal Serv., 105 F.3d 274, 275-77 (6th Cir. 1997) (“[T]he only logical interpretation of the statute is that non-prisoners have the option to proceed in forma pauperis under § 1915(a).”). Here, the heightened requirements of the Prison Litigation Reform Act do not apply. See West v. Macht, 986 F. Supp. 1141, (W.D. Wis. 1997). Under § 1915, an indigent party may commence a federal court action, without paying required costs and fees, upon submission of an affidavit asserting inability “to pay such fees or give security therefor” and stating “the nature of the action, defense or appeal and the affiant's belief that the person is entitled to redress." 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1).

Plaintiff has filed the required affidavits of indigence. Upon review of those affidavits, the court is satisfied that plaintiff meets the poverty requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 1915. Plaintiff receives an income of $1,169 per month and has over $1,300 in fixed expenses. Additionally, plaintiff has stated the nature of this action and asserted his belief that he is entitled to redress.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff's request to proceed in forma pauperis is GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(c)(3), the U.S. Marshals Service shall serve a copy of the complaint, a waiver of service form and/or the summons, and this order upon defendants. Plaintiff is advised that Congress requires the U.S. Marshal's Service to charge for making or attempting such service. 28 U.S.C. § 1921(b). The current fee for waiver-of-service packages is $8 per item. 28 C.F.R. §§ 0.114(a)(2). Although Congress requires the court to order service by the U.S. Marshals Service precisely because in forma pauperis plaintiffs are indigent, it has not made any provision for these fees to be waived either by the court or by the U.S. Marshals Service.

Plaintiff, however, should provide defendants or their counsel with copies of all future motions or papers filed by the plaintiff in this action.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin this 12th day of September, 2013.
